

Executive Appointments

Napier Environmental Technologies Inc. (T.NIR) announces that Cliff T. Davis has resigned as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer to pursue other interests. Mr. Davis will remain as a director of the company. Effective immediately, Bradley Aelicks, currently President, has also been appointed interim Chief Executive Officer and Lionel Dodd, currently a director, has been appointed Chairman. Mr. Dodd said, "Napier has made considerable progress in the past year in focusing upon its best opportunities and improving efficiency. It is now beginning to realize the benefits through higher sales and profitability. The Board has launched a search for a Chief Executive Officer to build on these accomplishments and to move the company to the next level."

Forward Looking Statements: This release and referenced materials contain forward looking statements that are subject to a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in our forward looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include: rapid technological and/or market changes in the industry; the ability to maintain and grow successful third party and customer relationships, to improve current products and develop new products, to adequately protect the company's proprietary rights and other factors described in the company's regulatory filings. Although we believe the expectations reflected in our forward looking statements are reasonable, individual results may vary, and we cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements.
