

Sears Stocks Waste Paint Hardener

Napier Environmental Technologies, Inc., is pleased to announce that Sears has agreed to stock Waste Paint Hardener™ in their 870 mall-stores in the U.S. Waste Paint Hardener™ will be merchandised throughout their paint department on clip-strips providing excellent exposure. Waste Paint Hardener™ offers an environmentally safe and cost effective solution for the Sears customer who is in need of getting rid of un-wanted latex paint. An independent service group will stock and maintain the product from a supply warehoused in Effingham, IL. Contracting the service groups of companies with related noncompetitive products allows Napier to control costs while providing first class support for our product line. The partner company also benefits from reduced costs as a result of shared labor and shipping.

As a reminder to shareholders, Napier's Removall™ strippers will be demonstrated on the PBS Television show "This Old House" the evening of October 17th check your local listings for show time.
